

Dennis Family Cemetery – Daisy Hill Road, Daisy Hill

Just through the entrance to the Daisy Hill Forest, on the left, are the Dennis family graves. James Dennis and his sister Nanny came to Queensland on the Flying Cloud in 1864, and James selected land adjoining what is now state forest. He married Mary Ann Markwell and they had eighteen children. Many family members are buried in this family burial ground. It is still in use.

Name	Date	Age	Co Death	Father	Mother
Dennis, Albert	17/7/1883	10 days	premature	James Dennis	Mary Ann Markwell
Dennis, Albert	29/6/1886	2 months	premature	James Dennis	Mary Ann Markwell
Dennis, Charlotte Barker	16/9/1878	14 Months	Whooping cough	James Dennis	Mary Ann Markwell
Dennis, David	10/9/1878	3 weeks	Whooping cough	James Dennis	Mary Ann Markwell
Dennis, Francis Edward	27/7/2000	78		Joseph Dennis	Lily Goan
Dennis, George Edwin	31/5/1921	1 month	pneumonia	Joseph Dennis	Lily Goan
Dennis, James	11/10/1893	51	Apoplexia nervosa, paralysis	John Dennis	Mary Ellis
Dennis, Joseph	25/5/1953	62		James Dennis	Mary Ann Markwell
Dennis, Lillian	21/1/1974	83	bronchitis	Goan
Dennis, Lucy	9/12/1900	25	epilepsy	James Dennis	Mary Ann Markwell
Dennis, Mary Anne	22/8/1920	71		Samuel Markwell	Mary Ann Shearman
Dennis, Thomas	2/7/1874	6 days		James Dennis	Mary Ann Markwell
Hemsworth, Mona	21/10/1990	77		Joseph Dennis	Lily Goan
Milton, Raymond John	12/6/1987	41
Wootten, Alf	21/11/1987	84			