

Above: Reginald Richardson & Dorothy on the left hand side

Both of above: Thomas's son, Edgar

Both above: Thomas's son, A J Richardson known as Jack. He served on the R101 airship and lost his life when it crashed in France in 1930. Memorial services were held in St Paul's Cathedral, London and also in the Cardington airship shed at 2.30 pm on Sunday November 16th 1930. The large stone memorial can be seen in Cardington burial ground.

A picture of the full R101 crew is contained in the book Wilshamstead Homestead of Friends.