

Above: Thomas's twin sons Harrold and Reginald and also pictured with their mother.

Other pictures of Richardson family members appear in the gallery in booklet 13 in this series.

Edgar Richardson

In the 1930's Edgar was instrumental in the Wilstead branch of the British Legion. He is pictured below left with the flag in the Richardson's front garden in Church Road. He was both chairman and president from 1930 until 1950. The Wilstead 'top' school can be seen behind him across the other side of the road. During the second world war, Edgar was heavily involved with the Wilstead Home Guard and is pictured below right with Tom Foggarty (who is at the gun).

