

Above: Lena Richardson and Edgar Richardson with Dobbin in the yard at the side of the bake house in Church Road. Both buildings are still there in 2007 although those on the other side of Church Road have been replaced by houses.

Above: Edgar with granddaughter Avril also pictured next to the bakehouse.

Above: This 1950's photograph was taken inside the Woolpack Public House, Wilstead and shows Edgar seated at the bar talking to Molly Foggarty and Bill Davies. This was apparently just after it had been refurbished.