

Kenneth Richardson

Edgar's son Ken was the third generation of the Richardson family to take on the bakery business in Wilstead. He had been delivering bread since he was old enough to carry anything.

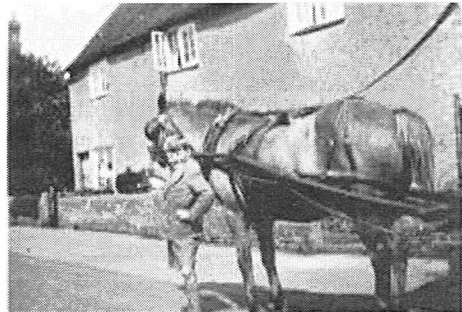

Left: Ken Richardson in the garden at the house in Church Road.

Below left: Ken Richardson dressed up at a Wilstead village fete in 1920s

Below right: Ken delivering bread near cottages on Cotton End Road.

Bottom: Ken Richardson & Gwen Simms wedding day

Above: (left to right): Vera Cook; Bess Richardson; Edgar Richardson; Fay & Martin Mendoza [evacuees to the village and brother and sister], groom and bride William Simms, Stella Simms, Reverend Pollard and Barbara Richardson later Dunnock, daughter of Jack Richardson.